

Sarah's Brave Challenge

On Friday August 3rd my Granddaughter Sarah was sponsored to climb Roseberry Topping for the neonatal unit at James Cook hospital. Initially Sarah's plan was to jump from an aeroplane but due to her disability it would have compromised her safety, so the next step was to find another challenge - Roseberry Topping.

Sarah has walking difficulties at the best of times so an ascent of Roseberry was always going to be difficult. With great resolve and support of her family and friends she managed to get to the top in just over an hour and raised a staggering £800 with money still coming in.

Sarah with her Grandmother (above).

I would like to thank the Smelly Helly's who contributed to Sarah's sponsorship challenge, and a special thanks to Mark Edwards who turned up Friday adding his support carrying the charities logo flag to the top! His jokes had us all in stitches deflecting some of the pain from aching legs.

If anyone who hasn't already sponsored Sarah and would like to I'm available most Tuesdays but not when the Boro are at home,

Steve Hutchinson

Grandson George ready for the off (above).