

Middleton St George Find

After our Tuesday night adventures crossing the Tees at lower Middleton I went back a few days later and found this piece of pottery in the ford. We think it is part of a Roman pestle and mortar set, used to grind herbs and make paste. If it went into the Tees where the Roman Rd crossed, then it has taken roughly 1,900 years to travel two miles downstream, Keith Wilson.

